Silent Book Club Moncton, founded by DJ MacDonald of Dream Vacation Tours in October 2023, is not to be missed! If you haven't discovered them on social media or attended one of their dynamic events—seriously, you're missing out!

SBC is a global community of readers and introverts with over 1000 Chapters worldwide, led by dedicated local volunteers. We gather in person to read together in peaceful companionship, Think of it as an Introvert Happy Hour!

It's a place where people can disconnect from their phones, immerse themselves in a book, and enjoy the company of fellow book enthusiasts without the pressure of small talk. There are no specific reading assignments—attendees simply bring whatever book they are currently enjoying. SBC is all about carving out time in our busy lives to unwind and read.

Since joining this global literacy phenomenon, SBC Moncton has experienced rapid growth, starting from their first event with just 20 people to now regularly selling out events with over 100 attendees and waitlists even longer! Since October, they've hosted over 30 events and welcomed over 1500 avid readers.

SBC Moncton was the second Maritime city to launch an SBC Chapter (after Saint John), and since then, eight more chapters have sprung up: Acadian Peninsula, Fredericton, Hampton, Sussex, Grand Manan, Charlottetown, Halifax, and Annapolis Valley.
